

Family Resources of Natick

FRN Community Council Meeting
Friday, March 22, 2019, 11:30am – 12:30pm
Cole Center, 179 Boden Lane, Natick

Minutes

Present:

Pam Koskovich (FRN), Melody Rolon (Child Care Resources), Julie Hanes (Criterion-Middlesex Early Intervention), Helida Johnson (WIC), Linsey Evans (FRN)

The meeting began with welcome and introductions.
Minutes from Jan 18 meeting approved.

Updates from FRN:

- Selection committee for new program director? Julie Hanes and Helida Johnson agreed to be available as needed by ACCEPT.
- Spring Child Development Fair
 - Pam brought the council up to date on her visit to Riverbend School to look at the location for our April 27 family event. The event is set for Saturday, April 27 from 2-4pm. Riverbend has an event that morning for K and 1 students and families. Space will work and event will be spread around several areas inside and outside the building. Council members present discussed ideas for how to set up and what activities could be included (WIC healthy eating, idea for teddy bear clinic if Leila Mercer can attend, blender smoothies hosted by FRN if space allows, Criterion-Middlesex gross motor activity such as animal obstacle course, and bookmobile and Natick Police with Child ID if they are available.)
- The FY20 grant application has not been released yet by EEC: this is the 3rd year of a 3-year contract. No council signatures are required.

Upcoming meeting is set for Friday May 17, 2019 from 11:30am to 12:30pm at the Cole Center.

Meeting adjourned at 12:30pm.
